Speak: In the beginning and the Word was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Vn. I.

Vn. II.

Vc. arco, sempre non legato

8

By faith, the hand of God is ev - i - dent: We see the
(He) made all things in heav - en and in earth. He speaks and land and skies as tes - ta - ment; We un - der - stand his brings His se - cret plan to birth— Pre - miers and kings, The 19

14

Word has framed cre - a - tion; and know We were made by him.
pow - ers of the nations— and all Are sus - tained by him.

24

1. He

2. He

30 came to light the world he made And the world put him to death. His own crea - tion dis - o-beyed Though he gave them blood and breath. And if he walked this earth to-day, Would an - y call him "friend" And kiss him on the cheek, But would not walk by him? I will walk by him for the world is dark And because my sight is dim. He will lead me through to the promised land; Till then I will walk by him. Some day, some 58

35

39

44

48

52

hour His keep-ing grace will end. His plan and power No man can comprehend. He'll speak and shower Up - on the old cre - a - tion the fire

64

70

Held in store by him. And though the god-less shun the thought, And mock his Word today, Who will not fear his judgment when The heavens pass away?

75

80

I will trust in him when the skies dis - solve For for me he bled and died

84

And I will not fear the e - ternal fire— By him I am jus-ti-fied. Yes, I know that my Redeemer lives And at the end of time, The mountains will melt but he will stand And I will stand by him.

89

94
